

2008 NASHVILLE SAME POST

JOHN LAMBRECHT AWARD

In 2007, the Board of Directors approved the establishment of the John Lambrecht Outstanding Service Award to honor the memory of John and his many years of faithful service to the Nashville Post. This year's recipient was approved unanimously by the Board of Directors is Brad Long. He not only met all of the criteria but also exceeded most of them.

The criteria for the award is as follows:

- (1) Member in good standing of the Nashville Post, Society of American Military Engineers
- (2) Hold a key leadership position in the Post for at least 5 years
- (3) Attend monthly Post Meetings, Board Meetings, Workshop, Regional and National Conference
- (4) Support the Goals and Objective of the Nashville Post as well as those of National SAME
- (5) Have notable contributions to Post and Post Scholarship Corporation
- (6) Show professional integrity in handling Post Assignments
- (7) Be nominated by Board of Directors

He has been a faithful member of the Post since 2002 and an officer since 2003. He supports the Post with attendance at all SAME meetings. He has performed his job as Secretary to the Post in an outstanding way; preparing meeting agendas as well as handling meeting logistics. His contributions to the Nashville Post during these years are too numerous to mention. This year's President said of Brad, "He demonstrates proactive leadership to address and promote the goals and objectives of the post with outstanding integrity and dedication."

The Nashville Post is very proud of Brad and all of his hard work. He has set an example to others of what leadership is all about and in doing so he has helped to make the Nashville the SAME Post it is to day.
